

PLEASURES OF THE WATER CURE

BY A PATIENT
WELL DRENCH'D AND RESTORED!

WHO HAS BEEN
AND WRENCH'D TO HEALTH.

— PORTRAITS of celebrated WATER DOCTORS —
JOHN SHUTTLEWORTH, STATIONER, ILKLEY.

ONWHYN (T)
2

WELCOME LIBRARY

General Collections

P

1208

22503105074

First morning at the Water Cure,
(Bathman brings the Wet sheet.)
"But I am sure I shall get my death of cold."

Sitz Bath & Wet sheet 6 o'clock, winter's morn<sup>g</sup>.
"This is delightful, very !!!"

Rock & Co
LONDON. 0202.

June 14
1860.

Costume of the Establish<sup>t</sup>.
Doing Penance in the Wet Sheet.

Rock & Co
LONDON. 0207.

March 11 1857

Preparing for the packing.
"Why my nearest and dearest friends wouldn't know me. I'm a perfect mummy."

Rock & Co
LONDON

Oct 25 1855

THE PACKING.
"Don't I look very like a Mummy."

Rock & Co
LONDON

March 20 1856

THE PACKING
"Now this is what I call being jolly."

Rock & Co.
LONDON. 0208.

April 20th 1860

THE RAIN BATH.

"You must be shut in for 15 minutes Sir!"

Rock & Co.
LONDON. 0208.

April 20th 1860

THE DOUCHE.

"Oh! Oh! Oh! Oh!"

THE ASCENDING DOUCHE.
 "Now Sir, please to take a seat here."

THE FOOT BATH.
 Doing penance in the Stocks, for past transgressions.

THE SHALLOW BATH.

"Ah! this, and the Water Can, is the best Doctor after all."

A patient at the Water Cure, getting well drench'd, & wrench'd, & restored to health.

J. W. Walker Esq
Sturgesville
York Road
Windsor
Maryland